

The European Producers Club is launching a new network in 2008 offering an innovative online platform for the most important contacts in film across Europe. For a fee, companies will be able to access and belong to a real community of established film professionals of all categories. A continuously updated database of the latest projects in development across Europe will allow users to find partners or alternatively, look for projects to join. The network is also a place where professionals can post their specific needs, locate companies, join discussion forums and keep up to date on the latest in film news in industry press.

Members of the European Cinema Network meet face to face regularly. Networking cocktails will be organised four times a year, at the Berlinale, Cannes, Rome Film Festival and the city chosen for the EFA Awards (Copenhagen in 2008).

Membership is subject to approval by at least two members from the EPC Board of Directors, which includes: Jean Cazès (Initial Productions), Marco Chimenz (Cattleya), Antoine de Clermont-Tonnerre (MACT Productions), Ira von Gienanth (Prokino Filmverleih), Dunja Klemenc (Studio Maj), Martin Moszkowicz (Constantin Film Produktion GmbH), Yves Marmion (UGC YM), Patrick Quinet (Artémis Productions), Antonio Saura (Zebra Producciones) and Ruth Waldburger (Vega Film).
